CEFR A1 Roleplay

1. Warm-up Discussion Questions

1. What is your name?
2. Where are you from?
3. How old are you?
4. Do you have any brothers or sisters?
5. What do you like to do in your free time?
6. What's one thing people should know about you?

2. Example Conversation: Introducing Yourself

Student A: Hello! My name is Maria. What's your name?

Student B: Hi, Maria! My name is David. Nice to meet you.

Student A: Nice to meet you too, David! Where are you from?

Student B: I'm from Spain. And you?

Student A: I'm from Brazil. I live in Rio.

Student B: Oh, that's great! I've heard Rio is a beautiful city.

Student A: Yes, it is! So, David, how old are you?

Student B: I'm 22. How old are you?

Student A: I'm 20 years old. Do you have any brothers or sisters?

Student B: Yes, I have one brother. He's older than me. And you?

Student A: I have one sister. She's younger than me.

Student B: That's nice! What do you like to do in your free time?

Student A: I like to read books and play volleyball. What about you?

Student B: I enjoy listening to music and going for walks.

Student A: That sounds nice. It was great talking with you, David!

Student B: Same here, Maria! See you later!

3. Background

You and your partner are attending a language class for the first time and don't know each other yet. The teacher has asked you to introduce yourselves to each other and learn basic information, such as each other's name, age, hometown, family, and interests.

4. Instructions

Student A:

You are meeting someone new. Introduce yourself by sharing your name, where you're from, your age, and some information about your family and interests. Ask the other person questions to learn about them too.

Student B:

You are meeting someone new. Introduce yourself by sharing your name, where you're from, your age, and some information about your family and interests. Respond to the other person's questions and ask them questions as well.
