

Meeting New People

CEFR A1 Roleplay

1. Warm-up Discussion Questions

1. Do you find it easy to meet new people?
2. What questions do you usually ask when you meet someone new?
3. How do you introduce yourself in English?
4. What things do you like to talk about with new people?
5. Do you prefer talking about hobbies or work when meeting someone new?
6. How do you end a conversation politely?

2. Example Conversation: Meeting New People

Student A: Hi! My name is Anna. Nice to meet you!

Student B: Hello, Anna! I'm James. Nice to meet you too!

Student A: Where are you from, James?

Student B: I'm from London. And you?

Student A: I'm from Madrid. Do you live here?

Student B: Yes, I do. I moved here last year. What about you?

Student A: I just moved here last month. I'm still getting to know the city.

Student B: Oh, I can show you some nice places!

Student A: That would be great! Do you work or study here?

Student B: I work here. I'm a teacher. What about you?

Student A: I'm a student. I'm studying English.

Student B: That's wonderful! What do you like to do in your free time?

Student A: I like reading and going to the beach. And you?

Student B: I enjoy hiking and playing football.

Student A: Cool! It was nice meeting you, James!

Student B: Nice meeting you too, Anna. See you around!

Student A: See you!

3. Background

Student A and Student B are attending an English class for the first time and are meeting each other. They are practicing asking and answering simple questions to get to know each other.

4. Instructions

Student A:

Introduce yourself to Student B. Share where you're from, what you do, and what you like to do in your free time. Ask questions to learn more about Student B.

Student B:

Introduce yourself to Student A. Share where you're from, what you do, and what you like to do in your free time. Answer Student A's questions and ask them questions too.

5. Vocabulary List

meet, new, introduce, name, where, from, live, work, study, free time, like, enjoy, teacher, student, beach, hiking, football, reading, class, nice.