

Going to the Supermarket

CEFR A2 Roleplay

1. Warm-up Discussion

1. How often do you go to the supermarket? What do you usually buy?
2. What are some common items you need to buy when you go grocery shopping?
3. Which dairy products do you usually buy?
4. How do you ask a store employee where to find a specific item?
5. What do you usually say when you are at the checkout?

2. Example Conversation: Going to the Supermarket

Student A (Customer): Excuse me, can you help me? I'm looking for the dairy section.

Student B (Store Employee): Of course! The dairy section is just down this aisle on your right.

Student A: Thank you! I also need to find some bread. Where can I find that?

Student B: The bread is in aisle 3, near the bakery.

Student A: Great, I'll go there next. Do you know if you have any fresh vegetables today?

Student B: Yes, we have fresh vegetables in the produce section, which is straight ahead.

Student A: Thanks! I need to buy some tomatoes and lettuce.

Student B: You'll find those in the middle of the produce section.

Student A: That's perfect. Where are the registers?

Student B: The registers are at the front of the store, near the entrance.

Student A: Thank you for your help!

Student B: You're welcome! Have a great day!

Student A: Thanks, you too!

3. Background

You are going to the supermarket to do some grocery shopping. One of you will be a customer looking for specific items, and the other will be a store employee helping the customer find what they need. The customer will ask for directions to different sections of the store and inquire about specific items, while the employee provides guidance and assistance.

4. Instructions

- Student A (Customer): You are at the supermarket and need to find several items. Ask the store employee for help locating the items and check out when you are finished shopping.
- Student B (Store Employee): You work at the supermarket and are helping a customer find the items they need. Provide clear directions to different sections of the store and offer assistance as needed. Be friendly and polite.

5. Vocabulary List

- Aisle, dairy, bakery, produce, checkout, register, fresh, section, find, customer.
