

Discussing Weekend Plans with Friends

CEFR B1 Roleplay

1. Warm-up Discussion

1. What do you usually like to do on the weekend?
2. How often do you make plans with friends for the weekend?
3. What's your favorite place to hang out with friends on the weekend (e.g., café, park, cinema)?
4. Do you prefer to plan your weekends in advance or decide at the last minute?
5. What activities do you enjoy doing with friends during the weekend (e.g., watching a movie, going for a hike)?
6. How do you usually decide what to do with your friends? Do you suggest ideas, or do you let others decide?

2. Example Conversation: Discussing Weekend Plans with Friends

Student A (Friend 1): Hey, do you have any plans for the weekend?

Student B (Friend 2): Not yet. I was thinking about going to the beach. How about you?

Student A: That sounds like a good idea! I was also considering going to the new café in town. Maybe we could do both?

Student B: Sure, we could go to the café in the morning and then head to the beach in the afternoon.

Student A: Perfect! What time should we meet at the café?

Student B: How about 10 a.m.? We can have breakfast there and then leave for the beach around noon.

Student A: 10 a.m. works for me. Do you know if the café has outdoor seating?

Student B: Yes, I think they do. It would be nice to sit outside if the weather is good.

Student A: Agreed! Should we invite anyone else to join us?

Student B: Maybe we could ask Sarah and Tom. They might be interested in coming along.

Student A: Good idea! I'll message them and see if they're free. Anything else we need to plan?

Student B: I think that's it. Just remember to bring sunscreen for the beach!

Student A: Definitely! I'll see you at the café at 10 a.m. on Saturday.

Student B: Great! Looking forward to it. See you then!

3. Background

You and your friend are trying to figure out what to do over the weekend. One of you suggests going to the beach, while the other has heard about a new café that could be interesting. Together, you decide on the plan, choose the time to meet, and discuss inviting other friends. The conversation takes place a few days before the weekend.

4. Instructions

Student A (Friend 1):

You are discussing weekend plans with your friend. You have some ideas in mind, like going to a new café or spending time at the beach. Suggest your ideas, listen to your friend's suggestions, and together, make a plan for the weekend. Decide on the details, such as time and place, and consider inviting other friends.

Student B (Friend 2):

You are discussing weekend plans with your friend. You're thinking about spending time at the beach, but you're open to other ideas. Listen to your friend's suggestions, share your own, and together, decide on a plan for the weekend. Agree on the details, such as time and place, and think about who else to invite.
