2. Example Conversation: Organizing a Group Holiday

Group Leader (Student A): So, we're all excited about this holiday, but we need to finalize the details. Have you thought about where you'd like to go?

Group Member (Student B): I was thinking about a beach destination, maybe somewhere in Spain. What do you think?

Leader: Spain sounds great! A beach holiday would be relaxing. Should we look at specific locations like Barcelona or Malaga?

Member: I've heard Malaga is beautiful, and it might be less crowded than Barcelona. Plus, it's a bit cheaper.

Leader: That's a good point. Let's go with Malaga then. Now, we need to decide on the dates. Do you have any preferences?

Member: I'm available in late June, but I'm also flexible in early July. What about the others?

Leader: Late June seems to work for most people. I'll confirm with everyone else. How about accommodation? Should we book a hotel or an Airbnb?

Member: I think an Airbnb might be better for a group. It would give us more space and might be more affordable.

Leader: Agreed. I'll start looking for some options. Do you have a budget in mind for accommodation?

Member: I'd say around 50-70 euros per night per person would be reasonable.

Leader: That's manageable. I'll make sure to find something within that range. What about activities? Any must-dos while we're there?

Member: I'd love to do some water sports and maybe take a day trip to explore the city.

Leader: Sounds fun! I'll add those to the itinerary. I'll also make a group chat so we can discuss any other ideas and finalize everything.

Member: Perfect. Thanks for organizing this. It's going to be an amazing holiday!

Leader: You're welcome! I'm looking forward to it too. Let's make it a memorable trip for everyone.
